a message from associate pastor, Jeff Lane

Greetings and peace be with you!

"The third time, [Jesus] said to [Peter], 'Simon, son of John, do you love me?' [Peter] said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' …and Jesus said to Peter, 'Feed my sheep.' (John 21:15-17)

On my office wall here at the church, I have a banner gifted to me at my ordination to the ministry. The banner bears the words Jesus spoke to Peter: 'Feed my sheep.' Jesus forgave Peter for denying him and told him three times to 'feed my sheep'. Jesus is our good shepherd, and a good shepherd cares for and tends each member of his flock. Our good shepherd has called faithful men to be pastors (shepherds) in His church to tend and care for His people. God instituted the ministry to teach and preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to administer the sacraments rightly. Through Word and Sacrament, the Holy Spirit gives and works faith wherever and whenever God pleases.

God has called the pastor to deliver these divine means of grace to His people. The pastoral staff at Faith Lutheran Church is willing and eager to bring you these means of grace wherever and whenever you need them. This means that when you are sick, in the hospital, facing surgery, homebound temporarily or permanently, facing the death of a loved one, or in spiritual distress, we want to bring you God's promises and grace to give you comfort and peace through His good gifts.

But we can't do this if we don't know you are in the hospital or will be, or if you hesitate to call us because you think we are too busy. Whatever the reason, please do not hesitate to call the office to let us know where you are and that you would like a visit. I often tell people that if I am too busy to care for the members of this congregation to which I have been called, then I am not prioritizing the things of God to which He has called me.

What you may not know is that, because of HIPAA privacy laws, hospitals no longer notify local clergy or churches or share patient rosters as they once did. If you or a family member doesn't call us, we won't know what is happening. Additionally, as your pastor, I vow to keep everything you share with me confidential. Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, is faithful and steadfast in love, and His love never ceases. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. (Psalm 46)

I encourage you to always let the church office know so they can contact your pastors when you or a family member would like a pastoral visit, no matter the circumstances. God has made you a member of His family and has assigned shepherds here at Faith so you can always receive His good gifts of grace, wherever you are.

In His mercy and grace,
Pastor Jeff

Discover Jesus in the Pages of the Old Testament.

Before the manger, before the cross, and before the New Testament was written, Christ was already there.

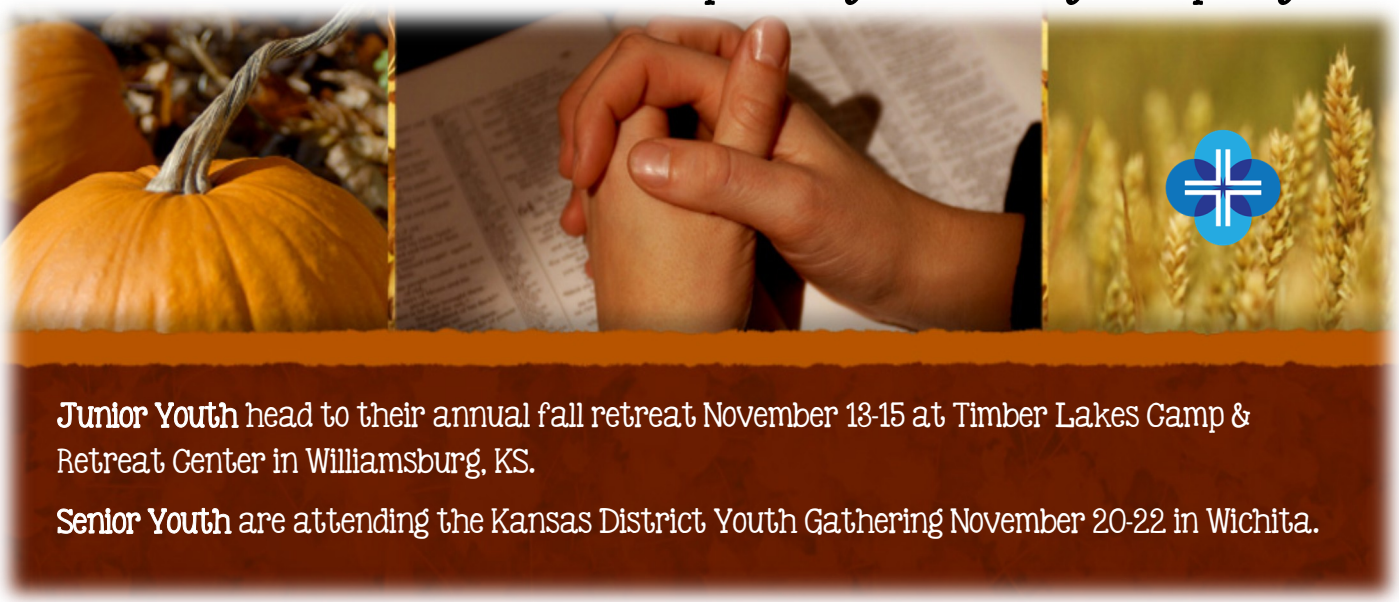

Too often, we read the Old testament as a collection of disconnected history lessons on moral rules. But through our confessional Lutheran lens, we know that all of Scripture points directly to the person and work of Jesus Christ. Whether you have been sitting in the pews for decades or simply want to understand how the two Testaments beautifully lock together — No prior advanced Bible study experience required. Bring your Lutheran Study Bible, your questions, and a heart ready to hear the Good News!

Join Pastor Jeff Wednesdays at 6pm as we explore what Jesus and the earliest believers simply called the Scriptures.

LWML Fall Tea and LWML Sunday

The LWML Fall Tea was enjoyed by 38 ladies! Our guest speaker was Al Struttman of Moburts, located in downtown Topeka. His presentation was wonderful, and his passion for and knowledge of the specialty foods he carries in his store made for an enjoyable and informative program.

The refreshments were delicious, featuring made-from-scratch goodies prepared using Al's recipes and the herbs and spices available at his store. Bottles of olive oil and vinegar from Moburts were placed on each table, with one lucky lady at each table taking home a bottle!

LWML Sunday was a wonderful morning of worship and service.

Beautiful quilts made by our talented quilting ladies decorated the pews. Following the service, the quilts were donated to Orphan Grain Train and local organizations here in Topeka.

Claire Banion presented the children's sermon, sharing how the generous giving of mites adds up to billions of dollars that support mission work around the world. LWML members also joined the adult women's choir in singing the anthem, "Bear Fruit That Will Last."

Our ladies served the Lord throughout the service in many ways, including greeting, ushering, reading the lessons, and serving donuts downstairs in Fellowship Hall. It was a wonderful reminder that God gives each of us unique gifts to share in service to others.

LWML Quilt Update

We had 153 quilts displayed on the pews for LWML Sunday. We distributed as follows:

16 to Sleep in Heavenly Peace

16 to Center for Safety and Empowerment

26 to Topeka Rescue Mission

28 to Doorstep

67 to Orphan Grain Train

We welcome all women of our church to join LWML!
Come share your God-given gifts, grow in fellowship, and serve the Lord alongside us.

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another." — 1 Peter 4:10a

What's your story...?

What's Your Faith Story?

"As a vibrant family of believers, Faith Lutheran shares God's saving grace to equip the next generation." One way to put our vision statement into action is to share our faith stories. "We are all storytellers. We all live in a network of stories. There isn't a stronger connection between people than storytelling." Jimmy Neil Smith, Director of the International Storytelling Center.

Just look at the Bible. It is Jesus' story. His story told through Old Testament stories, parables, passing down testimonies to teach spiritual truths. "All these things Jesus said to the crowds in parables; indeed, he said nothing to them without a parable. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet: 'I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world.'" Matthew 13:34-35.

These stories connect with listeners and preserve faith across generations. "Tell it to your children, and let your children tell it to their children, and their children to the next generation." Joel 1:3. The Bible encourages us to share our own lived experiences of God's grace and transformation. "You yourselves are our letter of recommendation, written on our hearts, to be known and read by all. And you show that you are a letter from Christ . . . written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts." 2 Corinthians 3:2-3.

Since July, Lutheran Women in Mission has been posting each month an audio story about women of faith, HIS Story through History: Faithful Women at https://www.lwml.org/250. Inspired by this project and Faith Lutheran's vision statement, our Lutheran Women in Mission group has formed a committee to bring your faith stories to light. The committee has developed a series of questions to help guide you, our storytellers, to prepare your story for audio and written publication within the church body. We have congregation members who have volunteered to assist you with editing and making an audio recording of your stories. All we need are your stories!

To obtain the questions to get started or if you need further information, you may contact the Faith Stories committee at faithstoryseries@gmail.com or speak with any of the committee members: Karen Brumleve; Brent McGuigan; Deb Hale; Sherrie Dick; Shari Albrecht. "He who has ears, let him hear." Matthew 11:15.

A month of Celebrations...

a message from our Parish Nurse Pat Schultz, RN

November: A Month of Celebrations—and Kindness!

November is a month filled with celebrations and observances. What comes to mind first? Perhaps Veterans Day and, of course, Thanksgiving!

Veterans Day was originally known as Armistice Day. It is observed on November 11 because the armistice that ended the fighting in World War I took effect at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month in 1918. Thanksgiving became a national holiday in 1863 when President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving and praise. The holiday is often associated with the three-day harvest feast shared by the Pilgrims and the Wampanoag people in 1621. Both of these holidays hold a special place in our nation's traditions and are widely celebrated throughout the United States!

But did you know there are many other celebrations and observances throughout November? The following list is mostly for fun, although you might discover an interesting or entertaining reason to celebrate!

November's Daily Celebrations and Observances

- November 3: National Sandwich Day and National Men Make Dinner Day
- November 4: Stress Awareness Day, National Healthy Eating Day, Use Your Common Sense Day, National Candy Day
- November 6: National Nachos Day
- November 7: National Cancer Awareness Day
- November 10: National Vanilla Cupcake Day
- November 11: Veterans Day
- November 13: World Kindness Day
- November 14: World Diabetes Day/National Pickle Day
- November 15: National Clean Out Your Fridge Day
- November 16: National Fast Food Day
- November 17: Homemade Bread Day
- November 18: National Apple Cider Day
- November 21: Pumpkin Pie Day
- November 26: National Cake Day
- November 27: Pie in the Face Day
- November 28: National French Toast Day

And that's not all! November also recognizes several important monthly observances, including Lung Cancer Awareness Month, National Adoption Awareness Month, National Diabetes Awareness Month, National Epilepsy Awareness Month, National Family Caregivers Month, National Home Care and Hospice Month, National Stomach Cancer Awareness Month, and Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month. These observances remind us of the many people, families, and causes that deserve our attention, understanding, and support.

One special observance caught my attention and gave me something meaningful to ponder: WORLD KINDNESS DAY, celebrated on November 13.

As I learned more about this observance, I discovered that World Kindness Day is a global movement dedicated to highlighting good deeds in our communities and celebrating the positive power of kindness. Introduced in 1998 by the World Kindness Movement, it encourages people to look beyond the boundaries of race, religion, politics, and gender and recognize our shared humanity.

What a wonderful reminder that even the smallest, quietest acts of kindness can have a far-reaching impact! A thoughtful word, a helping hand, a listening ear, or a simple expression of love can make a difference in someone's day—and sometimes in someone's life. We are encouraged to look beyond our differences and practice compassion in our everyday interactions.

As Christians, we know that kindness is more than a one-day observance. It is an expression of God's love and a reflection of His character. Scripture reminds us of this truth in Jeremiah 9:23–24:

"This is what the Lord says:
Let not the wise man boast of his wisdom,
or the strong man boast of his strength,
or the rich man boast of his riches,
but let him who boasts boast about this:
that he understands and knows Me,
that I am the Lord,
who exercises kindness, justice, and righteousness on earth,
for in these I delight, declares the Lord."

These words remind us that what matters most is not our wisdom, strength, or earthly possessions, but our relationship with God and our desire to reflect His kindness, justice, and righteousness in the world.

My prayer is that more people will come to know and experience God's love and concern for all people by believing and trusting in His Word. May we look for opportunities to show kindness not only on November 13, but every day of the year. Through our words, our actions, and our willingness to care for others, may we share God's love with everyone we meet.

Happy November! May your celebrations be filled with gratitude, your days with opportunities to show kindness, and your life with the abundant grace of God!
