a message from associate pastor, Jeff Lane

According to my calendar, the fall season is just getting underway. The days are getting shorter, and soon we'll be turning our clocks back as Daylight Saving Time comes to an end. A few other signs mark the start of fall, such as leaves on the trees bursting into brilliant gold and red colors.

At Faith Lutheran Church, we also kick off our fall events. These include Word on Wednesdays and our congregational book small groups. Word on Wednesdays has already begun, and in October we will start meeting in small groups to discuss our selected book, Forgiveness by Donna Pyle. Donna is a popular speaker and author who has written other books, including Meant for Good, which we have previously studied together. She has also presented here at Faith as part of our Faith Speaks series.

As Lutherans, we think we know all about forgiveness. We pray for it daily in the Lord's Prayer: "And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." We also know from our Small Catechism that God forgives sins unconditionally out of pure grace because of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. Forgiveness cannot be earned, bought, or merited through good works or religious payments.

The world, though, thinks of forgiveness as something we do for ourselves to feel better. It is often expressed this way: "Forgiving others is a gift we give to ourselves."

But it's not, is it? Forgiving others isn't a gift we give ourselves, but the gift God in Christ gives to others through us. We forgive because God sees us in Christ, so forgiving others means seeing them as God sees them in Christ. As Paul tells us in Colossians 3:12-13,

Clothe yourselves with compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, patience, bearing with one another and...forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must also forgive.

All our wrongs and others' wrongs against us have been forgiven through Jesus Christ, who took the sins of the world upon Himself for us and for our salvation.

Does forgiving feel good? It might, but it can also be deeply painful. That is not surprising, since forgiveness means something has to die. Things like our resentment, our grief, and our desire for revenge. They all die in Jesus so that we might emerge into a new life in Christ.

I hope and pray that you will find and join a small group as we think and reflect on forgiveness—how we are forgiven through the sacrifice of God's Son and how we are called to forgive others—as we walk together as a vibrant family of believers at Faith.

*In His mercy and grace,
Pastor Jeff*

Ministry Clarity.

Dear members of Faith Lutheran Church,

As a congregation, we have been working through the ministry clarity process under the guidance of Lutheran Church Extension Fund for the last 18 months to develop a vision for Faith's next 3-5 years. Faith's guiding statement formulated from our visioning event in January 2025 states:

"As a vibrant family of believers, Faith Lutheran shares God's saving grace to equip the next generation,"

Utilizing the above statement, the Ministry Clarity team has been working on the next step in this process. The proposed Targets, Goals, and Tasks that the Ministry Clarity team has assembled are based on your input from:

- The Visioning Survey (January 2025)
- Our Initial Visioning Event (January 2025)
- Our Follow-Up Visioning Event (June 2026)

The Targets, Goals, and Tasks were emailed to the entire congregation in September. We strongly encourage you to read through this document. If you need a paper copy, they are available in the church office. Absorb it; pray over it; and come hear more about the Targets, Goals, and Tasks at our Townhall meetings. Townhall meetings are scheduled for:

- Sunday, Oct. 4 at 9:30am in the Fellowship Hall
- Tuesday, Oct. 6 at 6:30pm in the Fellowship Hall
- Thursday, Oct. 8 at 6:30pm in the Fellowship Hall

In addition, we have also set aside two dates for follow-up questions. The following meetings will not include the entire presentation:

- Sunday, Oct. 11 at 9:30am in the Parlor
- Wednesday, Oct. 14 at 6:00pm in the Parlor

The Ministry Clarity team will present primarily on the Targets and Goals, and leave time for feedback and questions at each Townhall.

As we continue moving forward in faith, we are excited to see where the Lord is leading us as a vibrant family of believers!

In Christ,

The Ministry Clarity Team

In Forgiveness: Received from God, Extended to Others, Donna (Pyle) Snow addresses one of the most difficult realities of life in a fallen world: learning to forgive when the hurt is deep and the offense feels impossible to release. With biblical insight, personal testimony, and unwavering honesty, Snow acknowledges the pain of betrayal, family conflict, abuse, repeated offenses, and injustice while pointing readers to the forgiveness won for them in Christ.

Remember what you learned in Catechism Class?

Come refresh it with us!

Join us for a refresher class on Luther's Small Catechism as we revisit the foundations of Lutheranism: the Ten Commandments, Apostles' Creed, Lord's Prayer, Baptism, Confession, and the Lord's Supper.

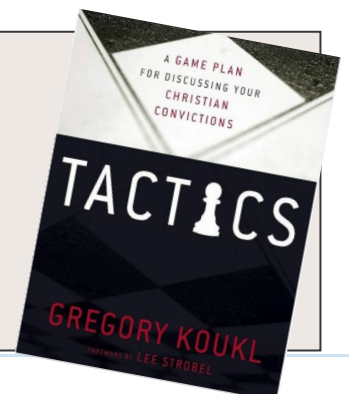

Whether you grew up with the Small Catechism, haven't looked at it in years, or simply want to strengthen your understanding of the faith, you're welcome.

Come review the basics. Ask questions. Dig deeper. Grow in faith.

Starting Wednesday, Oct 7 at 6pm and continuing through the month. Led by Pr Jeff.

In a world indifferent or even opposed to Christian truth, followers of Christ must be better equipped to communicate the timelessness of the Christian faith. But how do you have a conversation with someone who is intent on proving you wrong and won't accept the Bible as a source of authority?

Join us starting Wednesday, Oct 7 at 6pm and continuing through the month, as we study Tactics by Greg Koukl, and learn the game plan for communicating the compelling truth about Christianity with confidence and grace. Led by Scott Leonard.

Faith Lutheran's Women in Mission are at it again, preparing for this year's Noodle Dinner to raise funds for missions near and far. Last year's noodle dinner allowed us to provide $1000 each to the LeadaChild ministry; the Bridge, a nonprofit whose mission is to empower Topeka children to become servant leaders through long-term mentoring relationships; and to KansaSEED, an LCMS deaf ministry. Thanks to your generosity, in previous years we've sent funding to the Ben Helge missionary family, Compassion Strategies, Faith's visual art ministry, Pine Ridge Prep, the YWCA Center for Empowerment and Safety, and Groundwork Guatemala to name a few recipients. Look for information about this year's recipients after the Fall Tea! In the meantime, prepare your taste buds for noodles, both chicken and beef, mashed potatoes, green beans, salads, pies and cakes, lovingly and prayerfully prepared for you and the missions we serve.

South Campus Mortgage Update...

Because of the generous financial support of our congregation, LLC has determined that it is in our best interest to pay off the approximately $130,000 remaining mortgage on the South Campus Property.

This eliminates the debt and positions us for future opportunities arising from our Targets, Goals and Tasks. The payments previously allocated to the mortgage will now be redirected to our Future Projects Fund.

What a blessing to see how your generosity and faithful stewardship have made this possible. Thank you for helping us reach this milestone and preparing the way for upcoming opportunities God has placed before us!

Opioid Overdose Awareness Presentation

Please join us at Faith on Tuesday, Oct 20, at 6:30pm for an hour-long presentation from PARS (Prevention and Resiliency Services), a Topeka organization. Learn practical information about recognizing and responding to an opioid overdose.

Naloxone (Narcan) will be available at no cost for anyone who would like to have it.

A few helpful facts:

- The naloxone dose is the same for everyone.
- True allergic reactions to naloxone are rare. If a reaction occurs, EMS can treat it when they arrive.

Please plan to attend—this information could help you save a life.

Printed information packets are available in the church office.
